The Bellamy Brothers headline Freedom Fest

THE LOVE STILL FLOWS...

Howard and David continue to prove that the trail they've ridden to fame has been as unique as their music itself—music that is now celebrating over 40 years of success.

They headline Sanger's Freedom Fest on Saturday, June 29th at Porter Park.

The road that started on the pop music charts in the '70's, took a winding turn into country music in the '80's, paving the way for duos to come, such as Brooks & Dunn, Montgomery Gentry, Big & Rich and previously—The Judds. But before the road forked into country, the musical odyssey of brothers Bellamy started creatively smoldering in their home state of Florida, before exploding nationally amidst the '70's pop music culture of L.A.

The brothers first official gig was in 1968, playing a free show with their father at the Rattlesnake Round-up in San Antonio, Florida. They honed their early skills playing Black clubs throughout the south, and singing backup for artists such as Percy Sledge, Eddie Floyd and Little Anthony & The Imperials. Within a few months, the brothers moved north, immersing themselves and their rock/country sound in the Atlanta market, where the Allman Brothers were the emerging kings of the music world.

With the dawning of the Age of Aquarius on the horizon, and America embroiled in a smoke haze of drugs, civil unrest and an unpopular war, The Bellamy's music picked-up the hard driving edge that bespoke the times. Songwriting had become David Bellamy's drug of choice during the long road gigs he and Howard were regularly pulling bodies and equipment to and from. It was his songwriting that was posed to soon provide the duo a national breakout.

The break came in the form of the hit, "Spiders & Snakes," written by David and recorded by Jim Stafford. The song became a smash, eventually selling more than three million units worldwide. It became the catapult that rocketed the brothers onto the L.A. music scene. Young and impressionable, Howard and David fell into the musical circle of the greats of the day: Bob Dylan, James Taylor and Van Morrison, as well as West Coast based country rockers like Poco and the Byrds.

Now known by their music and the company they were keeping, The Bellamys officially lifted off the launch pad in 1976 when their single, "Let Your Love Flow," became an instant smash in both the U.S. and Europe. It stayed on the international charts long enough to build a huge international fan base for the hip young brothers that endures to this day. In Germany alone it perched at No. 1 for more than two months. The love was indeed flowing as The Bellamys jammed for audiences on their sold-out concerts and shared stages with the likes of Loggins & Messina, the Doobie Brothers and the Beach Boys with their patented blend Sunny's Thoughts.....

BY SUNNY YEATTS

The last time my thoughts rambled your way I spoke of kindness. Since I had written those words I came across a young girl's prayer in which she prayed that God make bad people good and good people kind. My grandson David said as much in a recent one of his prayers. Just a few words summed up my many. Moving on, my thoughts lately have been centering more and more on kindness and the impact freedom has on it. More to the point, exactly what is freedom and where does "it" come from and how do we get "it". The media throws the word freedom around like confetti in a New Year's Day parade. I will not be wasting my thought energy on media definitions, coverage, attitude or passing thoughts about "it". My approach is going to be on a much more personal level.

A definitive view of freedom from the media angle somewhat reflects the basic definition you would get if you Googled an internet request. You would probably get something similar to the following: to think, speak, or act however you want without interference or limitation. But, then again, this is not where I am coming from nor where I am going.

Like I said, I have given some of my thought time lately to freedom. We, as members of the human race are governed. The term governed brings to mind the word law. Scientific Laws like that of gravity or motion, Natural Law which defines crime and punishment and societal rights and wrongs and, then we have Moral Law like the Ten Commandments. When you have law which implies regulation then you also have freedom or the lack of freedom. I think of these things and then I ask myself: What exactly is freedom, what is freedom to me, how do I use it. As I thought I soon realized I needed to focus entirely on my freedom, and where did I get that freedom, what do I do with it and can it be lost, regained, altered?

Freedom.....freedom.....freedom.....freedom..... even the word has a free feel to it. At first thought freedom means that there are no limitations, no stop signs. Imagine being able to do anything, any time, any way. Imagine a room full, a city full, a nation full, a world full of people who would have the freedom to do anything they wanted. Rather frightening isn't it? The thought of you move that ability from yourself and giving it to everyone on earth should make you shudder.

However, if your thoughts are moving in that direction then I need to pull you back and get you on the same path as my thoughts since it is my thoughts I am sharing. Maybe on another day we will think about the results of total freedom in all aspects of living.

Those of you who know me know that I can be what is diplomatically referred to as outspoken ok, so that would be an understatement but let us not go there today.

Yes, when we speed, we might get a ticket, if we rob a bank we most likely will go to prison, if we jump off a cliff the landing could be very difficult, if we pick fights we will eventually meet someone bigger and stronger and reap the results of our inability to follow social law. There is a freedom not covered by those areas on which I have touched. I know this because of what it says in John 8:32 where Jesus speaks to both believers and non-believers: ...you shall know the truth and the truth will set you free."

The laws of science govern our bodies and determine tall, short, blue or brown eyes, slow or fast metabolism. We have punishments in place if we don't do what it takes for be a part of society. In fact we are surrounded by controls on our freedom. So how can something as simple as the truth do anything for us up to and including set us free. Set us free? Free from what and what truth?

So, if we know the truth, we will have freedom. The truth about what you ask. Of all the things God has given us the most precious and the most challenging is our freedom of choice. Yes we are given that ability, an ability which can free us or enslave us. For those of you who want to back off because they think I am speaking of religion just wait a minute. This is not religion this is faith of which I am speaking. Our creator gifted us with the freedom to choose. We can choose many things from the ordinary routine daily to the soul searching and soul saving. The who question answered. Our creator has given us freedom of choice. Now what exactly is this freedom?

It seems here it would be a solid assumption that our first freedom would be to either have faith in the presence of our Creator or not. Now is the time to ask why would He give us the choice of believing, if He created us why not just create beings which automatically believe in Him. The freedom we have been given is absolutely priceless, we, each one of us can choose whether or not to place our belief (faith) in a creator. From this freedom grow other freedoms which include our behavior and how we go through life day by day and moment by moment. We have this most valuable gifts. I can choose to be, to have, to do, to think, to feel.

When I speak of the freedom to choose logically there may be, in some cases like choosing a profession, certain limitations set by talents and abilities. Sometimes talents and abilities are determined just like our eye color. But nevertheless we do have some freedom to choose. For example, according to my mother I always wanted to be a teacher. Other children in the neighborhood played cowboys and Indians, or cops and robbers or mother and baby. I always wanted to play school with me as the teacher. And this was before I had even been to kindergarten. Where I learned about the classroom process of teacher/learner I have no idea. But that is what I have always wanted to be. When you look at my abilities at that tender age you saw attempts at communicating knowledge, patience when explaining something, the resulting joy when knowledge was imparted. Through my years I would make choices which would put me in situations that led down the path to becoming just what I had always wanted to be. And, each step on the path was driven by a decision. I think I know what some of you are thinking that this is just life, you have to make decisions. What I am saying goes deeper. I truly believe that the freedom of choice God has given each of us enables us to make choices and those choices are impacted by the truth. And, this truth is revealed to us by the people in our lives and the events which we encounter. These things and a realization that God is there and ready to gift us is the truth that allows us to have this most blessed gift of freedom.

I could go on with more examples of my path but I will be content with saying that everything that I have done, every choice I have made have moved me closer and closer to doing and being what I want to do and be. I feel at this stage of my life that I am content with how I have used the truth God has revealed to me in order to take full advantage of freedom.

Sanger Celebrates Flag Day with a Flag Retirement Ceremony

The city of Sanger marked Flag Day with a heartfelt and respectful Flag Retirement Ceremony, bringing together community members to honor the symbol of our nation's freedom and heritage. The ceremony, held at the Veteran's Memorial at Sanger Square Park, and was attended by local veterans, civic leaders, and residents.

Keynote speakers included representatives from the Sanger Lions Club, American Legion Post #268 of Sanger and The Lake Ray Robert Area Elks Lodge #2862 who spoke about the history and significance of Flag Day, as well as the proper etiquette for retiring worn-out American flags.

"Today, we gather not only to honor our flag but also to remember the principles it stands for: liberty, justice, and unity," said Mayor Thomas Muir. "It's a reminder of the sacrifices made by our servicemen and women to protect these ideals."

Denton County Judge Andy Eads was on hand and spoke about a recent trip overseas and how he was proud to have worn a hat that had the American Flag on it. Eads went on to say that he was very proud to see all the American Flags on display in Sanger and how patriotic Denton County is. Judge Eads is most passionate about ensuring Denton County remains the best place to live, work and play and works tirelessly with numerous nonprofits to improve the overall quality of life in Denton County. The Ceremony was hosted by Veteran Tex Mc Dorman and a special Flag Retirement Prayer by Pastor Ken Peterson with North Texas Trinity Cowboy Church in Sanger.

Residents who attended were able to honor a loved one who was a veteran or first responder by sponsoring a flag that was retired in their honor/memory and were able to purchase yard signs. The yard signs will be displayed on July 4th, Veterans Day, Memorial Day and Flag Day at the Veteran Memorial in the park on the square. STARS Paint Party Studios was on hand and folks were able to paint the American Flag.

Flag Ceremony

The highlight of the ceremony was the retirement of several American flags that had flown proudly over homes, businesses, and public buildings in Sanger. These flags were respectfully retired through a dignified burning process or cut up and disposed, in accordance with the U.S. Flag Code.

Local Girl Scout Troop #7847 played a significant role in the event, assisting with the collection and preparation of the flags for retirement. Their participation underscored the importance of passing down patriotic traditions to younger generations. Charli Davis with Troop #7847 spoke about her upcoming Gold Award Project. Her goal is to have three to four Flag Retirement boxes made and placed within the community so Sanger residents will have a place to put flags that need to be retired from service.

joined by Lions CUB's Lilly and Ivy McCullum who presented the flags that were retired. The group lead the community with the Pledge of Allegiance in the opening ceremonies.

Proceeds from the event went to support GSA Troop #7847 and the Sanger Lions Club CUB Club. The CUB club is for children ages 2-12 who do community outreach projects that support the needs of the community.

They serve alongside their parents and other family members who are also involved in community outreach projects.

"Hot Dogs, Apple Pie and the American Flag" was the theme of the night as Sanger's Flag Day celebration not only honored the symbol of our nation but also reinforced the community's commitment to patriotism and respect for the flag. The city of Sanger is dedicated to fostering a strong sense of community and patriotism among its residents. Through events like the Flag Retirement Ceremony, Sanger continues to honor its history and uphold the values that make it a great place to live.

Local Athletes Shine at Nike Outdoor Nationals

Two remarkable young athletes from Sanger, showcased their talents at the prestigious Nike Outdoor Nationals held at the iconic Hayward Field on the University of Oregon campus on June 12 and June 13. This storied venue, which is hosting the Olympic qualifiers this week, witnessed impressive performances by Niki Boone and Jacob Thompson in the middle school division.

Niki Boone competed in the 800m run, finishing 26th out of 68 qualifiers with a personal record (PR) time of 2:27.12. Although she qualified for the 1-mile run, the field was already full, preventing her from participating in that event. As an incoming freshman at Sanger High School, Niki's performance hints at a bright future ahead. Jacob Thompson, also an incoming freshman at Sanger High School, competed in both the long jump and the 400m open. In the 400m, he secured 15th place out of 30 qualifiers with a PR time of 55.18. Jacob excelled in the long jump, where he advanced to the finals after the preliminary round and finished 3rd overall with a leap of 18-11.25 gaining a medal. Earlier in the season, Jacob had qualified with a jump of 20' 0.5" and a 400m time of 56.68. As he prepares to start his freshman year at SHS, these achievements will undoubtedly serve as a strong foundation.

Both athletes competed under the United States of America Track and Field (USATF) regulations, embodying the spirit and talent of their community. Their hard work and dedication were evident as they competed at such a high level.

Looking ahead, both Niki and Jacob will compete at the USATF Regional Qualifier in Seguin, Texas, in early July. If they perform well and qualify, they will advance to the Junior Olympics, setting the stage for even greater accomplishments.

Their performances at Hayward Field not only brought pride to their hometown of Sanger but also provided a glimpse of the exciting future that lies ahead for these young athletes. The community eagerly awaits their next achievements and supports them wholeheartedly in their journey.

Jacob Thompson and Niki Boone, both of Sanger, competed in the Nike Outdoor Nationals at the University of Oregon campus. They will both be incoming freshman at SHS.

Bellamy Brothers

country music. True to their musical roots, their style and their songwriting was moving steadily more towards their raising.

By the late '70's The Bellamys were emerging on the country charts with another bona fide smash. "If I Said You Had A Beautiful Body (Would You Hold It Against Me)," originally scrawled on a dinner napkin by David, rocketed them to the top of the country charts the way "Let Your Love Flow," had done in the pop market just a few years earlier. It proved to be the first of a string of fourteen No. 1 singles in the U.S. alone.

Success followed success: "Dancing Cowboys," "Sugar Daddy," "You Ain't Just Whistlin' Dixie," "Lovers Live Longer," "Do You Love As Good As You Look," "Redneck Girl," "For All The Wrong Reasons," "I Love Her Mind," "I Need More Of You," "Old Hippie," "Too Much Is Not Enough," "Kids Of The Baby Boom," "Reggae Cowboy" and "Crazy From The Heart,"...all have lined the corridors of the Bellamy's musical history and their walls with platinum and gold.

Along the way, Howard and David created a patent on the newly cool "duo" category in country music. In the era of the 2000's, The Bellamy Brothers hold the record in both the Academy of Country Music (ACM) and the Country Music Association Awards (CMA) for the most duo nominations. Numerous GRAMMY nods have also been directed toward the brothers. Internationally, the story has been the same—though the titles may be different. The Bellamys have released more than two-dozen hit songs outside the U.S. that were never released here. With a sharp eye on the songwriting skills that have been the bedrock of their success, Howard and David concur that their career is unique in their international finesse for matching their songs to the market.

"For the international releases, you have to have a strong melody," notes David. "The lyric is very important, but internationally the melody is something fans can lock into, even if they can't understand the lyrics." Howard and David continue to perform and film TV specials in Europe and around the world.

These days when the subject turns to touring, The Bellamys are showing a new generation of country music how it's done. Country superstar Blake Shelton has helped introduce a new era of fans to the hits of The Bellamy Brothers during his annual Friends And Heroes Tour, where they continue to captivate arena audiences around the country. "We're old road dogs," grins Howard when asked about the motivation behind the brothers 200 plus concert dates each year. Adds David: "Our live draw is bigger than it was in the '80's. I think the same people that grew up with us and with our music in the '60's and '70's obviously have raised a whole new generation of Bellamy fans who started toddling to our music. Now they're turning up at our concerts as college kids, who are really turned on and tuned in to us and our music....it's a great feeling."

Their infrequent off days from the road, Howard and David head the bus back to their 150-acre family ranch in Darby, Florida just north of Tampa. A working ranch, the spread consists of Purebred Brahman Cattle and quarter horses. The Bella-mys opened up their lives to television audiences with their hit reality show "Honky Tonk Ranch." Each episode of "Honky Tonk Ranch" enthralled viewers with the unpredictable misadventures of the Bellamys attempting to balance their globe-trotting touring schedule while also running their sprawling family ranch in south Florida. The show was originally broadcast on "The Cowboy Channel" (a subsidiary of RFD-TV) and streamed around the world.

The Bellamy Brothers celebrated their 40th anniversary with the release of a two-CD collection, 40 years, an ambitious project containing 20 of their biggest hits and 20 brand-new songs. In 2019, the Bellamys released Over the Moon as well as their first book Let Your Love Flow – the Life and Times of The Bellamy Brothers. The book is about two Florida cowboys who journeyed from country poverty to worldwide musical stardom because they had the talent and because it never occurred to them, they couldn't make it.
