VOLUME 12, NO. 14      400 Bolivar Street, Suite 311 in Historic Wilfong Building - Sanger, TX 76266      March 15, 2024

Renovations begin at Uptown Rail Brewery in Downtown

Renovations are underway at the Uptown Rail Brewery in Downtown Sanger. The new brewery owners bought the old Hollingsworth Manufacturing Bldg. This is the same group that owns Paxicase Security in Sanger and recently opened Uptown Creamery Ice Cream Shop at 306 Bolivar Street in Downtown.

Uptown Rail Brewery will be located at 204 Bolivar Street for what will be the first business of its kind in Downtown Sanger. Founded by Todd and Vanessa Benson, there will be 7500 square feet usable space, originally built in 1903. Plans call for amenities to be set up outside as well, with a focus on making the brewery a family-friendly destination. "We plan on having an outdoor green space and a stage for live music with food trucks making it a fun environment for families to enjoy," said Todd Benson.

Inside the taproom, Benson expects 15-20 house beers available on a daily basis. The portfolio will consist of a mix of classic and modern styles, with products

Stucky and Hopper runoff will be held May 28

The Republican nomination for the Texas House District 64 seat remains undecided after last Tuesday's primary election.

Texas State House district map in Denton County (HD 64 is in red, and also includes all of Wise County).

Dr. Lynn Stucky, of Sanger, incumbent since 2017, received 43.29% of the 25,123 votes cast, according to unofficial results from the Texas Secretary of State's Office. His chief Republican rival, Andy Hopper, received 46.66% of the vote. In distant third was Elaine Hays with 10.05% of the vote.

Because no one received more than half of the vote, the race heads to a runoff election between Stucky and Hopper on May 28. The winner will face Democrat Angela Brewer, who was unopposed for the Democratic nomination in the primary, in the November General Election.

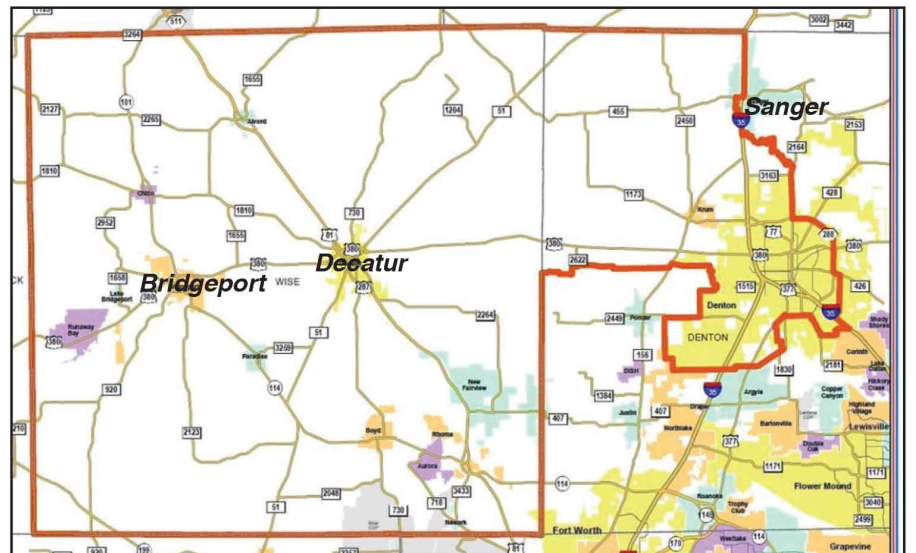

Hopper and Stucky faced off two years ago and it came down to a difference of less than 100 votes, as Stucky won with 50.3% of the vote in the March 2022 primary. Stucky has the support of most municipal and county leaders — including Denton County Judge Andy Eads and all four county commissioners, Denton County Sheriff Tracy Murphree, and current fellow state representatives in neighboring districts, such as Ben Bumgarner, Richard Hayes and Kronda Thimesch. Hopper's top endorsements, however, are Texas state officials — Attorney General Ken Paxton and Agriculture

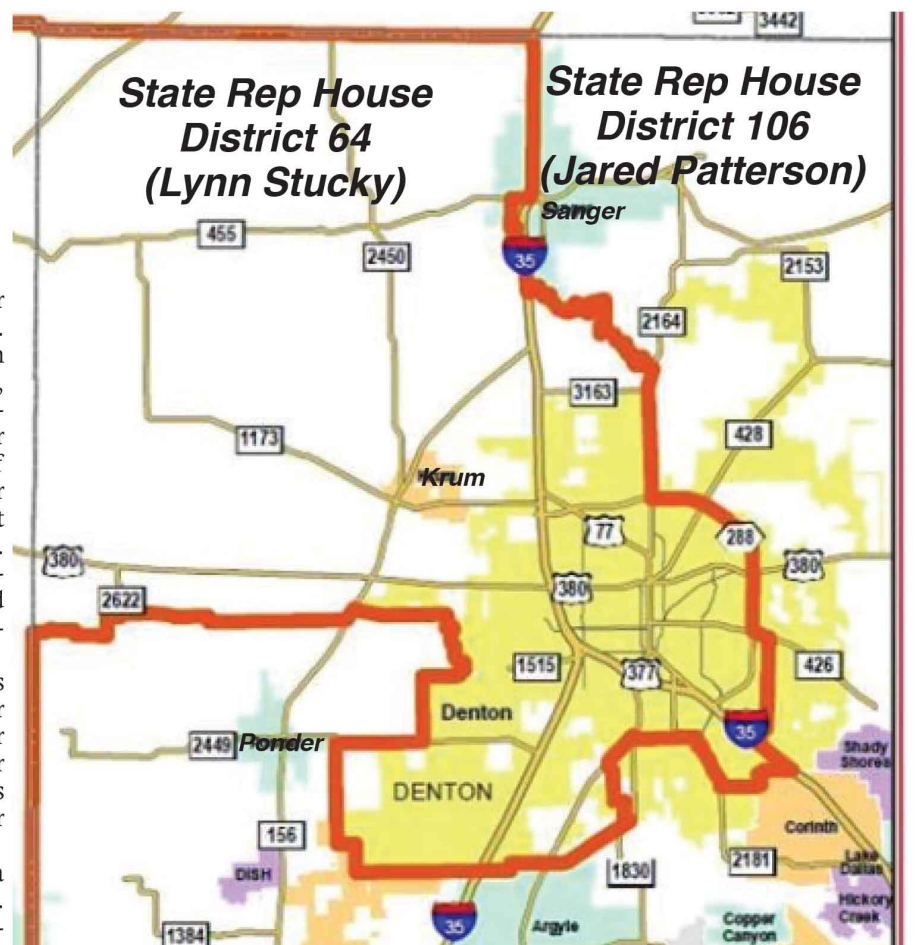

Lynn Stucky

Andy Hopper

HD 64 represents all of Wise County, northwest Denton County and the city of Denton.

ZOOMED IN - Sanger is represented by District HD 64 and District 106.

Join the Sanger Historical Society

Hello Neighbor!
Are you a lifetime resident of Sanger? Or did you move here as a child, a young adult, or a newlywed? Do you have children or grandchildren in the Sanger schools? Do you have friends who have known you for years, or are you a relative newcomer to our fair city? Did you move away from Sanger after high school, and have recently returned? Do you wish you knew more about Sanger's history? Do you wonder what to do with your parents' collection of yearbooks, athletic jerseys, and extra-curricular awards and uniforms?

The Sanger Area Historical Society can help! We have a museum that can answer questions about the people and businesses that have built — and continue to contribute to — the City of Sanger. We have books that were written by Sanger residents. You can learn about Sanger's school history while perusing yearbooks from 1934 through 2023. We'll help you explore life on the farm and in town, and you'll learn about the people who helped the citizens of Sanger through national crises and celebrations. Just come ask us! We're open every Saturday, from 10:00 am until 2:00 pm

And while you're here, consider becoming a member of the Sanger Area Historical Society. It's only $10.00 per person per year. For that low cost, you will have access to stories of what makes Sanger "Someplace Special". If we cannot answer your questions, we can direct you to someone who can. We're a fun group of people who love Sanger, and we would be happy to welcome you into our circle.

Our mailing address changed as we no longer have a postal box. Our mail is delivered to our street address which is 211 N. Fifth Street, Sanger 76266.

Give the Sanger Area Historical Society a try. You won't be disappointed.

The Sanger Area Historical Society needs your help! - Yearbooks ...

In 2016 we had our extensive collection of Sanger School Yearbooks scanned for free by a program that is no longer in existence. Currently we have 67 yearbooks digitized, but we are wanting to complete the set and have the missing issues scanned, so that we can make the entire collection of yearbooks available for everyone. In order to accomplish this project we need help locating the yearbooks we are missing. We have always accepted donations of yearbooks and would be happy to have any yearbooks you may have. If you have one of the years we are missing and would be willing to allow us to borrow it for scanning (this project will take a while to complete) please let us know.

The years we are missing are:
1935, 1936, 1937, 1938 (We have 1934 but nothing before that)

1942, 1943, 1944, 1945 (Yearbooks may not have been published during WWII to save paper, if you can confirm this please let us know.)

1986, 1987, 1988
1991
1994, 1995, 1996
2018, 2019, 2020

We do not have any yearbooks from the Elementary, Intermediate, Middle or other High Schools in Sanger ISD.

Donations can be delivered to the Sanger Area Historical Society Museum at 211 N. 5th Street Sanger, Texas 76266. If you have one that you want to loan but not donate let us know which one you have by emailing us at Sanger-SAHS@gmail.com.

Financial FOCUS

By Allen Chick, Edward Jones

As you know, interest rates have risen considerably over the past couple of years. But what does this mean to you, as a consumer and as an investor?

From a consumer's standpoint, it's not hard to see the effects of higher interest rates. If you want to take out a mortgage or refinance an existing one, you'll find that it's considerably more costly, in terms of the interest you'll pay, than it was a few years ago. And the same is true of car loans and credit cards. Paying these debts at higher rates can affect your cash flow, so while rates are high, you may need to make some important decisions about your overall budget and spending plans.

As an investor, though, you may find the effects of higher interest rates to be somewhat more complex. That's because higher rates can have a different impact on different types of investments, such as stocks and bonds.

When considering stocks, be aware that not all market sectors will respond the same way to higher interest rates. For example, the financial sector, which includes banks, insurance companies and brokerage firms, may benefit from higher rates. On the other hand, smaller technology companies, which still must invest heavily in their businesses, may not do as well due to rising interest rates making it more expensive for them to borrow. And other sectors will respond differently to higher rates. Keep in mind, though, that there's great variance within sectors and among companies, so when you consider purchasing stocks, evaluate each choice on its merits and make sure it fits within your risk tolerance, time horizon and need for portfolio diversification. When you diversify your investment dollars, you can reduce the risk of market volatility affecting just one type of asset, although diversification by itself can't protect against all losses.

How will higher rates affect you

With fixed-income investments, such as bonds, interest rate movements can have significant and direct impacts. When interest rates rise, the value of your current bonds will likely fall because new bonds can pay higher rates. However, you can also buy bonds at the new, higher rates and benefit from bigger interest payments.

Still, there's no guarantee that interest rates will stay elevated – in fact, the Federal Reserve has indicated that it might actually start cutting rates in 2024 – which is why it may be a good idea to build what's known as a "ladder" consisting of short-, intermediate- and long-term bonds. Once you have your ladder in place, you'll have some protection from interest-rate movements. So, if rates were to keep rising, you could reinvest the proceeds of your short-term bonds in the new, higher-paying ones. But if rates level off, or even fall, you'll still benefit from your longer-term bonds, which typically (but not always) pay higher rates than short-term ones.

Of course, if you hold your bonds until maturity, you will continue to get the same interest payments, regardless of where market rates go.

In any case, it's useful to be aware of what's happening with interest rates — the more you know about the factors affecting your investments, the better off you'll be.

Runoff

Commissioner Sid Miller — and conservative celebrities Ted Nugent and Kyle Rittenhouse.

Hopper released a statement Wednesday highlighting the fact that more than half the voters “rejected the disappointing record of our current representative.”

“We have seen that the people of House District 64 firmly reject the failed policies of the Biden administration and the Austin uniparty,” Hopper said. “They want a strong conservative voice that will stand up for our values and never compromise on our principles. When elected, I will get to work on day one to secure our southern border and elections, protect our Second Amendment rights, and eliminate property taxes.

Stucky released a statement expressing confidence in his ongoing reelection bid.

“I am grateful to the voters in Denton & Wise County for a spirited turnout in this election,” Stucky said. “There is more work to do and we look forward to building on the conversation with Republican voters as we head to the runoff. They counted me out in my first election and I proved all the pundits wrong.

“Runoffs are nothing new, especially when the opposition mounts a campaign built on lies and deceit. Voters are waking up to Andy’s lies and won’t be fooled again this May.”

Sanger is represented by District 64 and District 106 by State Representatives Stucky and Jared Patterson. District 64 (Stucky) line is mostly west of I-35 in Sanger. District 106 (Patterson) is mostly east of I-35 in Sanger. He was unopposed in the primary. His opponent in November is Hava Johnston who was unopposed in the Democratic Primary for District 106. See the zoomed in view of Sanger’s district map line on the bottom of page 1.

Brewery

highlighting the uniqueness of the area - whether it be the way of flavors and ingredients, or by bringing local heritage.

“We will partner with local farmers and/or suppliers to incorporate fresh, regional produce into our beers. Additionally, we will showcase the history and culture of our region through the branding and marketing of our brewery.”

The goal, quite naturally, is to create a strong connection with the area residents, and to attract customers who are interested in supporting a local business.

As for the timeline, the project is in its early stages, but Benson hopes to open by mid-to-late summer.
