OBITUARIES...

Ralph Amyx

November 20, 1940 - June 12, 2023

Ralph Dennis Amyx, 82, of Sanger, Texas, peacefully passed away on Monday, June 12, 2023, at his home, surrounded by his family. The oldest of three sons to Fred B. and Marvel (Balthrop) Amyx, Ralph was born in Decatur, Texas, on November 20, 1940.

Ralph graduated from Sanger High School and began attending North Texas State University (now called the University of North Texas), where he earned his Masters's Degree. On July 30, 1960, in the Lois Community, Ralph married the love of his life, Lela Mae Springer. They made their home in Sanger, where they raised their two children, Curtis and Lynelle. This year would mark 63 years of marriage. He and Lela were members of the First Baptist Church in Sanger, where she worked as the church secretary for forty years, and Ralph served as a Deacon.

In 1963, Ralph began his teaching and coaching career with Sanger ISD. In basketball, he led the Sanger Indians to several Bi-District and District Championships. The signs still hang in the gymnasium on Seventh Street to this day. After receiving his Master's Degree in Physical Education, he moved to the elementary school where he taught P. E. and Science. He was an excellent teacher, from academic books or life lessons. If you were coached or taught by Ralph, then you were given a nickname. If you walked up to him today, he would still call you by that nickname. He loved and truly cared for his students. He retired after 30 years with Sanger ISD. When he retired in 1993, he had taught two generations of students.

Growing up on a dairy farm, Ralph returned to farming full-time after retirement. Amyx Farms raised some cattle, as well as sheep and goats. Eventually, he concentrated solely on sheep and goats. Ralph was instrumental throughout the State of Texas in helping many of the youth in FFA and 4-H with their show lambs.

Ralph served on the Sanger ISD Board of Trustees for nine years. He was a 32nd Degree Mason and a member of the Bolivar Masonic Lodge #418, having earned his 60-year Service Award with the Bolivar Lodge and the Grand Lodge of Texas in 2022.

Ralph was a family man and loved the Lord. He lived it every day by example for others to see and follow. Ralph and Lela followed their children and the grandchildren in all their involvement. In May, he was able to travel to graduation for his granddaughter, Ashton, with her Doctoral of Physical Therapy. He had the best outlook on life. He always enjoyed a good story, whether being the teller or the listener. He loved teasing, cutting up, and laughing with everyone he knew.

Ralph is survived by his wife, Lela of Sanger, Texas; one daughter, Lynelle Stroope and her husband, David of Sanger, Texas; one son, Curtis Amyx and his wife, Brenda of Sanger, Texas; sister-in-law, Elaine Amyx of Denton, Texas; one brother, Dickie Amyx and his wife, Melinda of Sanger, Texas; brother-in-law and sister-in-law, John and Liz Springer of Sanger. Additionally, three grandchildren, Weston Stroope of Pleasanton, Texas, Ashton Stroope and her fiancée, Steven Stratso of Fort Worth, Texas, and Dalinda Damm and husband, Phil of Savery, Wyoming; and two great-grandchildren, Morgan Damm, and Reid Damm, also survive him. He is preceded in death by his parents, one brother, Joe Amos Amyx, and one grandson, Billy Craig Dennis.

Visitation was held Monday, June 19, 2023, from 12:00 pm - 1:30 pm at the First Baptist Church of Sanger, Texas. The funeral service followed at 2:00 pm. Dr. E. L. McNeil officiated the services. Pastor Dickie Amyx, Pastor Grant Bowles, and Larry Tidwell spoke at the services.

Services were under the direction of Coker Funeral Home in Sanger. Please share a memory or offer your condolences to the Amyx family at www.cokerfuneral-home.com.

OBITUARIES...

Jeffrey (Jeff) Hunt

November 11, 1947 - May 29, 2023

Jeffrey (Jeff) Hunt, 75, of Denton, TX, passed away peacefully on May 29, 2023, in Medical City, with his wife, Becky, and friends at his side. He was born on November 11, 1947, to George Marion and Leta Ruth (Jordan) Hunt in Bowie, TX. The family moved to Denton when George started a new job.

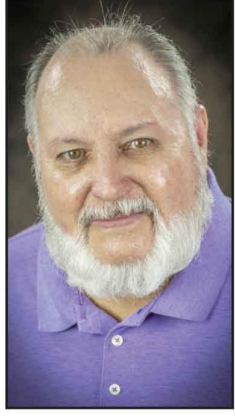

In 1966, Jeff graduated from Denton High School and enrolled in North Texas State University where he was initiated into Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity. To support himself, Jeff worked at Denton State School and changed his major to psychology because he enjoyed interacting with the residents. When he realized that he'd need a Ph.D. in psychology to earn a living, he made a difficult decision. He followed in his father's footsteps. His dad, who'd been a steamfitter aboard a naval ship, worked in the Dallas Metroplex for Plumbers and Steamfitters Union Local 100. While Jeff waited for Local 100 to accept him into the apprenticeship program, he attended an air conditioning/heating school. His acceptance letter arrived the day after he finished the A/C training, and his apprenticeship program began. While Jeff was still an apprentice, his mother invited a former student teacher to dinner. After a delicious meal and a date to see the first Star Wars movie at the Campus Theater, Jeff knew that he'd met the love of his life.

On June 10, 1978, Jeff married Becky, and spent forty-four years enjoying nephews, nieces, and friends' children.

Also, Jeff and Becky supported Compassion International, a worldwide organization who found sponsors for families unable to provide basic necessities for their children.

After a failed back surgery, Jeff left plumbing and returned to the University of North Texas to earn a B.A. degree in Economics. After graduation, he completed a paralegal program and interned at Baker and McKenzie Law Firm.

Continuing back problems and other health issues forced him to retire in 1999. Although retirement provided Jeff with time to revisit his passions... listening to music, reading the latest book, or watching his sports team, he faced a new set of challenges because Becky was still teaching. Like his mother, who loved to learn new things, Jeff taught himself to plan, shop, and prepare meals. A music aficionado, he enjoyed music whenever possible, so while he prepared meals, the kitchen danced to the beat of Beethoven, Ricky Skaggs, the Rolling Stones, and many other favorites.

Although Jeff kept busy, he found time to read the Bible daily and loved to discuss the information with family and friends. A life-long learner, he also read whatever captured his interest, and his brother-in-law described him as "one who read widely."

He is survived by his wife Becky, sisters-in-law-Debbie Hulse (Bobbie) KS, Mary Jane Shoen (Joe) ID; niece-Courtney

Engberg-Hulse (Jessica) MI; nephews-Benjamin Hulse (Mihan) CO, Cody Shoen ID, Charles, Gabriel, and Nathan Wightington-Dallas Metroplex; great-nieces-Jane Shoen ID, Ellasyn Engberg-Hulse MI, Hadlee Engberg Hulse MI; great-nephew-Darius Hulse, many friends, and his beloved felines Honey Bear and Smokey Blue.

An only child, Jeff was preceded in death by his mother, father, and grandfather Ruthven G. Jordan, and cousin Alice Dean.

A celebration of life will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 29, at Willowood Church of the Nazarene, 1513 W. Willowood St., Denton. A private family service will be held at Bolivar Memorial Cemetery in Sanger, TX, where Jeff will be laid to rest with his family.

In lieu of flowers, his wife requests that donations be made to the American Lung Association or a favorite charity.

Barbara Ann Hunter

May 31, 1945 - June 24, 2023

Barbara Ann Hunter, 78, of Denton, Texas, passed away at her home on June 24, 2023. She was surrounded by all of her children, who loved her very much.

The daughter of Henrietta Thomas, Barbara Ann, was born on May 31, 1945, in Dallas, Texas. She left Dallas at a young age and moved to New York with her older brother Ray where she attended Catholic school. At the age of 15, she moved back to Dallas. She talked about how much she loved Texas weather. She did not like the cold of New York and was very happy to move back to Texas, which she considered her home. She loved sitting outside in the shade during summer, listening to her favorite music, and enjoying the breeze.

Barbara was widowed twice. She married Clinton Morris in the early sixties and had four children: Clinton Denise, LaBarbara Ann, Clinton Lee, and Sharon Lynn. She would later marry Kennieth Melvin Hunter and have two more children: Kennisha Melene and Kennieth Melvin.

Barbara loved to learn and help others. Barbara attended and graduated from nursing school, building a lifelong career at the Denton state school, and was a highly respected private nurse.

A fond memory that we all cherish and would like to share happened last November when Barbara attended her youngest son's wedding. She danced in celebration with family and friends. She was so passionate about spending time with her family. Her smile and her laugh on that night reflected the 78 years of her beautiful life. While we danced with her, the light in her eyes revealed an immense joy that could not be missed by anyone in the room. Barbara is survived by her four daughters, Clintona Powe of Sanger, Texas, LaBarbara Franklin of Sanger, Texas, Sharon Morris Wilson of Irving, Texas, Kennisha Hunter Morgan and her spouse, Jennifer Morgan of Denton, Texas; two sons, Clinton Morris and spouse, Petra of Germany, Kennieth Hunter and spouse, Troy O'Neil-Hunter of Chicago, Illinois, and brother, Charles Thompson of Denton, Texas, 14 grandchildren, and 9 great-grandchildren.

Barbara was preceded in death by her first husband, Clinton Morris, her second husband, Kennieth Hunter, her mother, Henrietta Thomas, and brothers Robert Northington, Ray Wilson, Johnny Woods, and Vandoyl Thomas, sister, Beatrice Woods, and her grandchild Juan Armando Rolon.

The family will receive friends on Saturday, July 1, 2023, from 9 AM until 11 AM in the Chapel of DeBerry Funeral Directors. Funeral Services will begin at 11:00 AM in the Chapel. Internment will follow at TBD.

John Will Studamire

September 23, 1938 - June 22, 2023

John Will Studamire, 84, passed from his earthly life and entered the Gates of Heaven on June 22, 2023, at his home in Sanger, Texas.

John was born on September 23, 1938, in Clanton, Alabama, to L. C. Stone and Orenner Steel Stone. John was a steel worker for 25 years for Steel of West Virginia. In addition, he was the first black fireman in Huntington, West Virginia.

Early in life John was a caddy in Clanton, AL, from the late 1940s to early 1950. He moved to Birmingham in 1956. Then John spent 40 years in Huntington, WV, where he married Janet Irene Wheeler on April 19, 1969, and raised his family. There he ran a golf group for at-risk kids, worked as the golf coach at St. Joseph High School, and helped found one of the first Black Premier golf tournaments in the country of its time (Ebony Golf Classic).

After 36 years of marriage, his wife, Janet, died, and he returned to Birmingham. He remembers fondly how his days in Birmingham and on golf courses around the state, shaped his life.

"Golf has been good to me. I played in 48 states and outside of the country," he stated. "It paid for my son's college. It also allowed our family to travel. Golf is a good way out," he said. "Incidentally, I was a decent golfer. I was somewhere between 0 to 5 handicap (scratch) player for years. If you're a golfer, you'll know what I mean."

Studamire and his son, Michael, "Challenged amateurs and pros alike for a small wager, bragging rights, or just a good-quiet round of golf," he said. They played in tournaments around the country, including two of his favorites, the Bridge Builder in Tuscaloosa and the Ebony Golf Classic in Huntington West Virginia.

John was involved in the Civil Rights movement. He stated "After leaving here, I found out that a lot of places in the North were not any better than the South. They were no better off than we were. In fact, they got a lot of stuff done because of what we had done in the South. The Blacks here really don't get all the credit they deserve for some of the things they did here," said Studamire, who worked as a Royal Ambassador in his younger years in Birmingham. Through the group, he met Dick Gregory and Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., in addition to heavy weights champion of the world Floyd Patterson. "We have gotten a lot done, but by the same token, very little done. It's, well, rough. It's tough."

Unlike a lot of people who left here and forget where they came from. I didn't. I still have a few old friends around here," he said. "If I'm not on the golf course, you'll find me at the driving range hitting the balls with the rest of the boys. My shirt says, "My equipment is old, but I can still get it up sometimes."

As you can tell, "Mr. John" loved the game of golf and traveling. He never met a stranger. He loved sitting outside in the garage or on the sidewalk as passersby waved and hollered, "Hello, Mr. John." He would give the shirt off his back to help somebody less fortunate than him, and always had a positive attitude, "We can always find a way," he would say.

His family loved him dearly, and they spoiled him rotten. His favorite pastimes were sitting in the garage with the granddaughters, listening to Jazz and Blues, feeding the bunnies, and eating a good hamburger.

John is preceded in death by his parents, brothers Grover Studamire and Charles Darby. He is survived by his son and wife, Michael and Frederica Studamire of Sanger; daughter and husband, Deborah Wheeler Figures and André; sister Geraldine Studamire Chestnut of Birmingham, AL; grandchildren, Zachary Figures, Danielle Figures, Isaiah Figures, Harold Wills, Jasmyn Studamire, and Jade Studamire; and great-granddaughters, Naimah and Mylah Figures.

A wake for John was scheduled for Wednesday, June 28, 2023, from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm at Coker Funeral Home, 403 Pecan Street, Sanger, Texas.

Mr. Rohmer graduated from Sacred Heart Catholic School in 1974 and received a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of North Texas in 1978. He began working for Dallas Power and Light (later known as Texas Utilities) upon graduation and became a CPA in 1980. In 1992, Mr. Rohmer was looking for a rural setting in a small community with neighborly hospitality and exemplary schools unrivaled in the metroplex, so he moved back to Muenster. He matched his new idyllic lifestyle with the exciting opportunity to join Nortex Communications in 1995 and eliminated the grueling daily commute to Dallas.

During his tenure at Nortex, Mr. Rohmer has made significant contributions to the financial success and growth of Nortex as a Member of its Board of Directors and Company ESOP Administrator and Trustee. Within the industry, he served multiple terms in various officer roles on the Texas Statewide Telephone Cooperative, Inc (TSTCI) Board of Directors as well as the NetAmerica Board of Directors. His expertise and strategic financial management have been instrumental in navigating the challenges of a rapidly evolving business landscape and driving the company's successful financial standing and overall performance.

He also maintained commitment to his community by volunteering multiple terms of several office positions including President for the Muenster Chamber of Commerce, Sacred Heart School Board, and member of Sacred Heart Trust Fund Board.

Under Mr. Rohmer's leadership, Nortex has achieved many notable milestones, including the purchase of controlling interest of the Company stock, formation of the Employee Stock Ownership Plan, pursuit of various diversification strategies into cable TV expansion, wireless services, and fiber to the home. These diversification efforts have made the company less dependent upon its regulated service areas. His visionary approach to financial planning and disciplined execution has positioned the company for continued success in the future.

"It is with mixed emotions that we announce Alan's retirement. While we are sad to see him leave, we are extremely grateful for the tremendous impact that he had on our organization," said Joey Anderson, Nortex CEO. "His leadership, financial acumen, and unwavering commitment to excellence have been instrumental in guiding our company through various challenges and ensuring our sustained growth. We wish him all the best as he embarks on this new chapter of his life."

Nortex Communications has initiated a thorough search process to identify a successor to the position of CFO. The company is currently considering candidates, with the goal of ensuring a seamless transition and maintaining the company's financial strength and stability. To be considered for this rewarding opportunity, send your cover letter, resume, and salary requirements to: Lori Fischetti, Sycamore Business Solutions President at execsearch@ntca.org.

In the interim, Mr. Rohmer will collaborate closely with the executive team to ensure a smooth handover of responsibilities and provide valuable insights during this transitional period. Nortex expresses their gratitude to Mr. Alan Rohmer for his dedication and wish him well in his retirement.

Nortex currently employs fifty-two people bringing innovative fiber optic services and premium customer service to large and small business, schools, hospitals, and residential customers across Cooke and into Denton, Grayson, and Montague counties.
