Five reasons why you should file tax returns early

Crunch Time
The Internal Revenue Service estimates that in a typical tax year, about 30 million taxpayers wait until the last two weeks before Tax Day to file their returns. Are you procrastinating about doing your taxes? Here are five smart reasons why you should file early. Many people wait till the last minute to file their taxes, which can lead to costly mistakes, unwanted stress, and delayed refunds. This article shows you the benefits of filing your taxes early.

Get Your Refund Faster
Each year, the IRS processes millions of tax returns. It takes time to slog through this mountain of paperwork, which means some taxpayers have to wait weeks – and sometimes months – to get their refunds. That's why the IRS urges taxpayers to file early, file electronically, and opt to get their refund through direct deposit, which means no waiting for that check in the mail. If you're counting on your tax refund to make a down payment on a car, do some home improvements, upgrade your appliances, or cover a big medical bill, filing early gets that money in your hands sooner. If you plan to use your refund to pay off debt, that faster refund can help you pay it down quicker and save on interest. One more thing: That money you get back from your taxes? That's actually YOUR money. You just lent it to the government for a year (interest-free, too). How nice of you! When you file taxes early, you get your money back faster. So, why wait? File as soon as the IRS starts accepting returns – generally in mid-to-late January.

Reduce Your Stress
It's no secret that many people dislike doing their taxes as much as getting a root canal, and they'll delay until the last

OBITUARIES...

Wallace "Buddy" Roy Trietsch

October 21, 1935 - February 4, 2024

Wallace Roy Trietsch, 88, of Sanger, Texas died in his home on February 4, 2024 surrounded by family.

He was born in Denton County on October 21, 1935 to George William and Lydia Caroline Trietsch. Wallace was the youngest of four children. He attended Denton High before joining the National Guard where he was stationed for one year at Fort Polk (now Fort Johnson), Louisiana during the Cuba crisis. Wallace spent his working days farming and banking. He once even raised enough turkeys to purchase a new truck.

SPOUSE – Wallace met the love of his life, Sondra in 1958 while on a blind date. After a wonderful time swimming at the lake, to surprise of his friends Wallace asked Sondra on a second date. After dating for three years, Wallace and Sondra were married in a small ceremony in 1961 at the First Methodist Church in Henrietta, Texas.

CHILDREN – Wallace and Sondra could not wait to start a family of their own, and their children meant the world to them. Survived by sons Edward Lee Trietsch and Ralph Edwin Trietsch.

GRANDCHILDREN – Though he loved golfing, fishing, and woodworking, Wallace's favorite role was that of a grandparent, and great-grandparent. He treasured his time with the grandkids and great-granddaughter. He loved being their Grandpa/Pawpaw, never failing to take them fishing or share his love for woodworking.

JOB – Wallace was passionate about his various roles at then named First State Bank of Denton bought out by Wells Fargo. He worked in banking for thirty-seven years, retiring as the assistant vice-president.

HOBBIES – Everyone who knew Wallace knew how much he loved fishing. While on vacation in Puerto Rico, Sondra and Wallace went out deep sea fishing. Sondra recalls the trip out was rough weather, but ended in a wonderful day of fishing. Wallace hooked a Blue Marlin, fighting to reel in the catch for over forty-five minutes leaving Wallace exhausted. In memory of the experience a replica was purchased and hung prominently in the living room.

Wallace was preceded in death by his parents George William and Lydia Caroline Trietsch and two siblings Perry and William R. Trietsch. He is survived by his spouse Sondra Trietsch, sister Ruby Birdwell, sons Edward Lee Trietsch (Stephanie Spearman) and Ralph Edwin Trietsch, grandchildren William Edward Trietsch (Nimmy Mammoottil), Katherine Nicole Stephens (Brett), Margaret Elizabeth Trietsch and Casey minute. That kind of procrastination can definitely be stressful – often more stressful than the task itself. Why put yourself through that?

Scott Trietsch and great-granddaughter, Ciana Michelle Trietsch.

Rushing through your tax return last minute can also lead to mistakes, sometimes costly ones. Errors on your return can delay your refund, so it makes sense to take your time and get it right. Starting early gives you time to gather all your paperwork for potential deductions you may be eligible for, which may lead to a bigger refund. This is especially true if you're itemizing, which takes more time and documentation than claiming the standard deduction.

So, check off a major chore from your to-do list early in the year and breathe easier without the burden of taxes hanging over your head.

Protect Yourself From Identity Theft

Imagine this: You've filled out your tax forms, clicked to submit, and then get an alarming message. Your return has been rejected. What went wrong? Most likely, someone used your Social Security number and already filed a tax return, making you a victim of tax refund fraud.

This scam usually happens early in tax season, long before most taxpayers file. Armed with your Social Security number, a scammer has everything they need to file a fraudulent return – and steal your refund.

How can you protect yourself? You might not know if your information has been compromised until the IRS notifies you that your return has been rejected. You can usually clear things up with the agency, but that takes time and can delay your refund. Experts recommend that you file as early as possible so that an identity thief has less time to file a fake return in your name.

Your Social Security number is like gold, so take precautions to protect it and other sensitive personal information. Scammers will try lots of tricks to get your Social Security number, so never give it out over the phone, or in a text or email.

Avoid the Rush

Tax season for tax preparers and certified public accountants (CPAs) is like Christmastime for Santa Claus – busy, busy, busy! If you want to make an appointment with a tax professional – especially right before Tax Day – you may find they're all booked up. Some preparers also charge more to complete a return at the last minute, which can eat into your refund.

Experts agree that the best way to avoid all the hassles is to make an appointment with your tax professional as soon as you can. This gives your tax pro plenty of time to review your return, ask for any additional documentation, and focus on getting you the biggest refund possible.

Even if your return is relatively simple and you do it yourself using tax preparation software, don't wait until the last minute to file. Rushing increases the chances of errors. Plus, as we said before, the sooner you file, the sooner you get your refund.

Give Yourself Time to Plan

Getting a refund is the best-case scenario, but if you end up owing money, doing your taxes early can give you time to create a plan and avoid a last-minute tax bill.

The good news is payment isn't due until Tax Day. By filing in late February, you can give yourself up to two months to save so you don't bust your budget. You can also set up a payment plan with the IRS if you aren't able to pay your tax bill by the filing deadline.

To keep a handle on your finances, the IRS suggests reviewing your withholdings and tax payments in the last quarter of the year – October, November, and December. That way you can adjust withholdings and payments to avoid any surprises.

Whether you owe money or expect a refund, getting your taxes done early is a smart move. It will help you reduce stress, avoid mistakes, and protect yourself from identity theft. If you're getting a refund, it's a good idea to create a budget so you don't blow it all on a big spending spree. As the old saying goes, "A penny saved is a penny earned."

Filing your taxes early offers many benefits. The IRS recommends filing electronically and choosing to receive your refund via direct deposit to your bank account. If you need help planning for or preparing your taxes, consult a tax expert or reach out to your financial institution.

5 TAX SMART REASONS TO FILE EARLY

1. Get Your Refund Faster

The IRS urges taxpayers to file early, file electronically, and opt to get their refund through direct deposit, which means no waiting for that check in the mail

2. Reduce Your Stress

Procrastinating on filing taxes can make things more stressful than necessary. Starting early gives you time to prepare and allows you to breathe easier.

3. Protect Yourself From Identity Theft

Scammers use social security numbers to file fraudulent returns and steal tax refunds. When you file earlier in the season, you prevent the likelihood of being compromised.

4. Avoid The Rush

Tax season for tax professionals is busy. Make appointments as early as possible. Rushing increases the chance of errors and late filings.

5. Give Yourself Time To Plan

Getting a refund is the best-case scenario, but if you end up owing money, doing your taxes early can give you time to create a plan and avoid a last-minute tax bill.

The IRS recommends filing electronically and choosing to receive your refund via direct deposit to your bank account. If you need help planning for or preparing your taxes, consult a tax expert or reach out to your financial institution.

Ask a Pharmacist

What is the quickest way to get rid of a cough or cold?

We have a mobile app at www.sandjpharmacy.net
You can refill your prescriptions thru the website and mobile app.

From natural remedies to antihistamines to cough syrups and suppressants, there are many ways to treat the symptoms that come with a cough or cold. Learn pharmacist-recommended tips in this month's Ask a Pharmacist article:

If you don't incorporate a hot toddy into your response to this question, you're probably not doing it right! In all seriousness, the honey in a hot toddy is beneficial to many in quelling a cough. If you are seeking a more "modern" approach, rest, hydration, and first-generation antihistamines (such as chlorpheniramine and diphenhydramine) are the most effective options for drying mucus secretions, and they have a moderate anti-tussive effect. With the added benefit of sedation associated with first-generation antihistamines, you will likely rest easier, as well. However, if you are elderly or have prostate issues, antihistamines are to be avoided.

Another option that may benefit certain patients are dextromethorphan products, which include some cough syrups and suppressants. Then there is the cough drop. Demulcents, which can be found in certain types of cough drops, can soothe irritated throats and decrease the cough reflex in some patients, while menthol-containing drops are modestly effective. Steamy showers and cool-mist humidifiers round out my recommendations for quickly quelling your cough and cold symptoms.

Book Club: The Long Call

Sanger Public Library

The Sanger Public Library's Book Club will be discussing The Long Call by Ann Cleeves

Book Summary: In North Devon, where two rivers converge and run into the sea, Detective Matthew Venn stands outside the church as his father's funeral takes place. Once loved and cherished, the day Matthew left the strict evangelical community he grew up in, he lost his family too. Now, as he turns and walks away again, he receives a call from one of his team. A body has been found on the beach nearby: a man with a tattoo of an albatross on his neck, stabbed to death. The case calls Matthew back into the community he thought he had left behind, as deadly secrets hidden at its heart are revealed, and his past and present collide. An astonishing new novel told with compassion and searing insight, The Long Call will captivate fans of Vera and Shetland, as well as new readers.

Contact the library at 940-458-3257 for more information.

Sanger 10, Pottsboro 0

Leala Kloewer was dominant in the circle, as she rang up 13 strikeouts in Sanger Lady Indians's 10-0 victory over Pottsboro on Tuesday. Kloewer surrendered one hit and zero runs over five innings while walking two.

Sanger opened the scoring in the bottom of the second thanks to two singles. Sanger first got on the board when Piper Lindlau singled, scoring one run.

A fielder's choice by Sophia Troegle, a single by Dalilah Millan, and a wild pitch helped Sanger extend their early lead in the third.

Lindlau went 2 for 3 at the plate to lead Sanger in hits. Troegle and Millan were a one-two punch in the line up, as each drove in two runs for Sanger.

Bridgeport ends Lady Indians season in bi-district playoff game

The Lady Indians have had their share of success in recent years under head coach Derek Hilliard, between three straight outright district championships from 2021-23 and a run to the regional semifinals two seasons ago. Some key injuries early this season and a co-district title dropping them to a No. 2 seed for the playoffs contributed to them not reaching those heights in 2024.

Sanger drew a daunting first-round matchup with No. 24-ranked Bridgeport, and could not overcome the Sissies' stifling defense Monday as it lost the 4A Region I bi-district round bout 39-28.

Taylor Galbreath paced Sanger's scoring effort on the night with 11 points, while Hope Hughey chipped in nine points and Molly Schmucker added seven.

With the win, Bridgeport (25-11) advances to face No. 1 Glen Rose (30-3) in the area round of the playoffs later this week after Glen Rose defeated Sweetwater by a score of 82-8 on Monday.

Sanger's (17-14) Round 1 loss was its first since falling 57-46 to Dallas Pinkston in the 2020 bi-district round. The Lady Indians lose one senior Samantha Hydock and the rest of the team returns to make a deeper playoff run in 2024-2025.

Taylor Galbreath scores against Bridgeport in the first-round playoff game. Sanger lost 39-28.
