MORE HISTORY LOST FOR SANGER

Batis home demolished for widening of FM 455

The home of Noah C. Batis was demolished, recently, on FM 455 near Keaton Road in Sanger. Mr. Batis was a family man, a Denton County commissioner, a Chisholm Trail herder, a livestock breeder of mules and horses, and he was a veterinarian to local farmers. Although he never had a degree to back it up, he had the knowledge and skills, and the local and area men trusted him to treat their livestock.

Noah was born October 4, 1860 in Jacksonville, Illinois and died in March 1950. He and Amanda E. Rhine Batis married and had 4 children; Bertha, Edward, Carl and Bessie. After wife, Amanda, died February 11, 1891 (and buried in the Krum cemetery), he married Laura L. Batis who gave birth to 5 more children; Walter, Guy, Beulah, Bonnie, and Noah. Laura died November 2, 1950 and is buried in Sanger Cemetery along with husband Noah who had passed away in March 1950.

Noah arrived in Sanger in the spring of 1889. He purchased 95 acres of fine land just on the edge of town, and built one of the largest and best accommodating barns in the country. Some of his finest animals were Keota Bob, McGregor, William

Sanger Library to Re-open with Limited Services

BY Audrey Tolle

The Sanger Public Library has been offering curbside pickup of requested materials since May 11th and will soon begin the second phase of reintroducing services. On June 8th, the library will be open by appointment for checking out books and other materials, providing reference service, and assistance in faxing, photocopying, and mobile printing from patron's devices through the new Princh app. Appointments will be limited to 30 minutes and can be scheduled between the hours of 10:30 am-5:00 pm Monday-Thursday, 10:30 am-4:30 pm on Fridays and 10:30 am-1:30 pm on Saturdays by either calling the library or filling out the online form that will be available on the website at www.sangerlibrary.org.

The Minimum Standard Health Protocols for the reopening of libraries and museums in the Governor's Report to Open Texas currently requires the number of visitors allowed in the building be limited to 25% of the maximum capacity, which in the case of the Sanger library equals only 10 people. No "interactive functions" are to be used by visitors, and for this reason the library's public computers will not be available at this time.

The checklist also states that items coming into contact with visitors are to be sanitized, and employees are to maintain at least 6 feet of separation from individuals. It goes on to say, "If such distancing is not feasible, measures such as face covering, hand hygiene, cough etiquette, cleanliness, and sanitation should be practiced." Library staff members have been wearing face coverings when not at their desks or dedicated work areas and, though not required, the hope is that visitors will do so as well. The library's small physical space can make it more challenging to maintain 6 feet of separation, particularly in certain areas.

The following services and sections of the library will not be available in this phase of the reopening:

- Computer use
- Browsing in the children's section, the stacks (aisles of bookshelves), and sections in the back of the library.
- Reserving the meeting room
- Restrooms and water fountain
- Seating other than designated chairs

We appreciate the community's patience as we, like many other libraries across the country, reopen in phases to better ensure the safety of both our patrons and staff. Appointments for curbside pickup will continue to be an option. We will also continue to offer virtual programs, including Summer Reading. The kick off will be on June 13th with a special concert by a popular local musician. Stay tuned for details!

COMMERCIAL TRUCK SEASON

The property also held the original small home that Noah and his wife occupied located at the back of the newer home, along with quarters for his help, a cook kitchen, and a huge livestock barn.

Batis home

McGregor, William Whiten and Morgan horses along with John and Hubbard Jacks. Fine colts resulted from these prize animals and were scattered over Denton, Collin, Wise and Cooke counties. When Noah arrived in Sanger, stock breeding was at a low ebb, but with his knowledge and expertise with stock, he changed that.

Batis drove herds of cattle up the Chisholm Trail in 1881 for Judge S.A. Venters. His last trip was in 1882 when he traveled the trail with a herd of 1,200 head of cattle that belonged to Bill Loflin. Noah was interviewed by Jasimine Fry and Pat Hillert of Denton Record-Chronicle in April 1948, and he talked about riding the trail and the Indian encounters.

Jack Armstrong once said that his father, Hazen Armstrong, remembered Noah receiving the two-story home loaded on railcars. He asked Hazen and several other men to bring their wagons and they loaded up the Sears' craft home "kit" and transported to Batis' farm just west of what is now I-35 on FM455. It consisted of loads and loads of the necessary goods to complete this 2-story home. The property is located across FM455 from the Chisholm Trail Elementary School. Noah built the home although it is not known how long it took to complete. It had two stories, a wrap-around porch on the south and east sides of the home. The property also held the original small home that Noah and his wife occupied located at the back of the new home to be built, along with quarters for his help, a cook kitchen, and a huge livestock barn.

A Texas State Historical Commission marker was held July 28, 1987 at the home in memory of Noah C. Batis presented by Joe Batis, grandson of Noah, and attended by Jack Marshall, current owner of the home at that time and still owned to this date, along with Mayor Nel Armstrong of Sanger. The marker reads:

Noah C. Batis

A native of Illinois, Noah C. Batis (1860-1950)

came to Texas at an early age in 1881. He worked as a cowboy driving cattle up the Chisholm Trail to Kansas. He came to Sanger in 1889 and ten years later, at this site established the Sanger Stock Farm which became known for its fine horses, mules and other livestock. Although he lacked the formal training, Batis provided veterinary care for his animals and for those of nearby farms. A County Commissioner from 1919 to 1923, he lived here with his wife Laura (b. 1864). They died in 1950.

This Texas State Historical Commission marker has disappeared from the home. It was mounted on the front of the home and had been advised it was placed inside the home. After several attempts to locate, it has never been found.

And now we are at this point in the history of Sanger: April 29, 2020; the day the house was torn down to make room to widen FM 455. Sanger has now lost another piece of their long history dating back to 1886 when the Gulf, Colorado, and Santa Fe Railroad came through and the railway company named the town Sanger.

Noah C. Batis came to Denton County in 1875 as a 15-year-old youth and moved to Sanger in 1889. He recalled, in a Denton Record-Chronicle article, the trail drivers who herded their cattle over the Old Chisholm Trail.

Lacey Horton and other senior SHS moms hosted a prom on Friday night at the Lake Ray Roberts Elks Lodge. The event was a huge success. Kavan Billiot and Rylee Hudson were the prom King and Queen. Most of the students were seniors, since it would be their last prom. The original prom was canceled at Texas Motor Speedway, because of Covid 19.

"I was so nervous that it wouldn't be a good turnout, and it was a great one," said Horton. "All the girls looked beautiful, the boys were so handsome. Thanks to everyone for coming to the event and staying."
